Crude oil refining capacity of refineries

† 3947. SHRI KAPIL SIBAL: SHRI RAJIV RANJAN SINGH 'LALAN':

Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that installed capacity of crude oil refining in the country at present is different in private sector and public sector;

(b) if so, the installed capacity in these two sectors during April, 2001;

(c) the points of time alongwith the targets to increase the same during the next years; and

(d) what will be the installed capacity in private sector and public sector by 2005, separately?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI SANTOSH GANGWAR) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Sector-wise installed capacity as on 1.4.2001 is given below:-

	Million Metric Tonnes Per Annum (MMTPA)
Public Sector	75.85
Joint Sector	9.69
Private Sector	27.00

(c)and (d) The refining capacity of 112.54 MMTPA at the beginning of this year is likely to increase to 114.67 MMTPA by the end of the current year. The refining capacity is estimated to increase further in both the private and public sectors to meet the growing demand of petroleum products during the Xth plan period.

Since the refining sector is delicensed, it is difficult to estimate the installed capacity by 2005.
